

Who Rules?

Who controls the past, controls the future: who controls the present, controls the past.

George Orwell

Who Controlled the dark ages? Who controls the present?

Psst!!! The first Question Answers the second Question.

Pope Benedict XVI addresses the UN General Assembly April 18, 2008

What other religious leader has a seat in the UN?

Rev 13:11 And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.

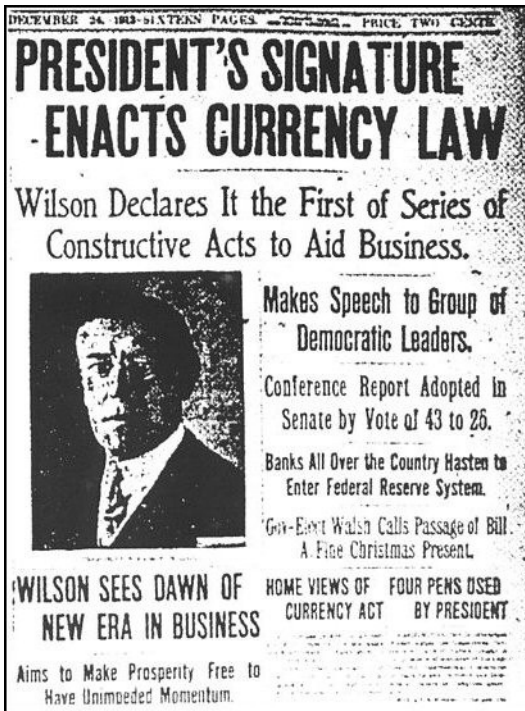

Rev 13:12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed

These pictures are meant to make us think!!! In this day and age everyone has a opinion who rules.? Some think it is the Democrats or the Republicans, Globalists, the Masons and then there is the group who thinks the Jews run the world. Lets let the pictures do the talking!! I think if we look back at history we would see who really rules. All I say is let history be history. You can get pictures by doing a google search on "a person and pope" and then selecting images. A picture is worth a thousand words. 24 thousands words with 24 pictures.

There are 24 thousand words that tell a story

A ruling group is a ruling group so long as it can nominate its successors. The Party is not concerned with perpetuating its blood but with perpetuating itself. Who wields power is not important provided the hierarchical structure remains always the same.

George Orwell

President Woodrow Wilson persuaded Congress to pass the Federal Reserve Act on December 23, 1913 creating the privately owned and controlled Federal Reserve Bank. The Federal Reserve Bank is not part of the Federal Government and therefore is not under any legal obligation to our government under any circumstances. This private bank completely controls the monetary policy of the United States and by extension our whole economy.

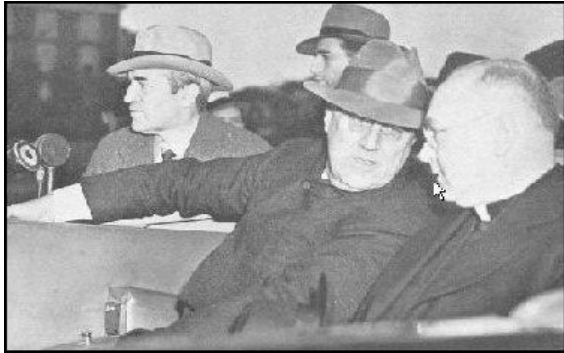

Prior to the Federal Reserve Act President Wilson summoned a special session of Congress in April 1913 where he appeared in person before Congress, he was the first president since John Adams to do so, to make his appeal for what is now known as the Revenue Act of 1913. This Act established the modern federal, state, and local income tax that we all pay today.

Very interesting actions of the very first United States President to be granted an audience with the Roman Pontiff.

Who created and persuaded congress to pass the Federal Reserve Act?
Who controls the Federal Reserve Bank?
Who persuaded Woodrow Wilson?
Could the Vatican control it???

President Woodrow Wilson persuaded Congress to pass the Federal Reserve Act on December 23, 1913 creating the privately owned and controlled Federal Reserve Bank.

Cardinal Spellman and President Roosevelt NYC 1940

Cardinal Spellman and Ex PM Winston Churchill NYC 1940

Cardinal Spellman and General MacArthur
New Your City 1951

Archbishop Cardinal Spellman
33rdDegree F.B.I. Director J. Edgar Hoover
Knight of Columbus Postmaster General
(1940) James A. Farley

Eisenhower walks with Pope John XXIII at the Vatican, Dec. 6, 1959

Eisenhower and Cardinal Spellman 1954

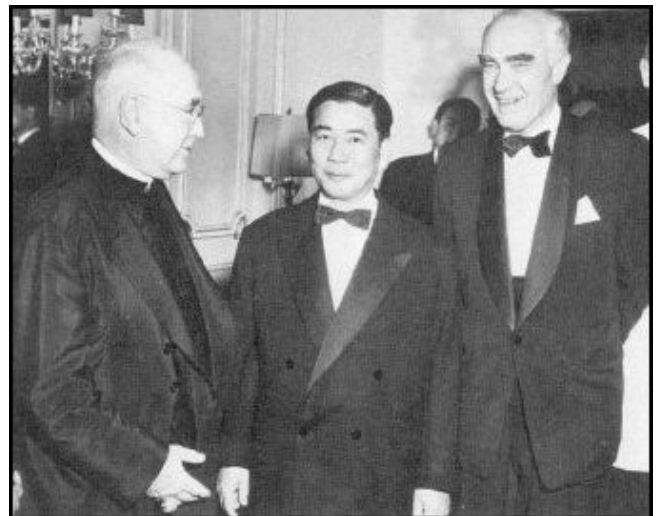

Socialist Martin Luther King with his Master Pope Paul VI 1964

Cardinal Spellman Visiting American Troops Around the World During Peacetime and war time 1960

Spelly's War in Vietnam 1965

Spellman, Vietnamese President Ngo Dinh Diem Knight of Malta and Press Lord Henry R. Luce 1960.

President John F. Kennedy and Pope Paul VI talk at the Vatican in this July 2, 1963 file photo. Kennedy's meeting with Pope Paul VI at the Vatican was historic: the first Roman Catholic president of the United States was seeing the Roman Catholic pontiff only days after his coronation. Kennedy — who struggled against anti-Catholic bias during his presidential campaign — only shook hands with the pope rather than kissing his ring, as is the usual practice for Catholics.

Pope Paul VI, left, and President Lyndon B. Johnson are seen during the Pontiff's visit to New York in this Oct. 4, 1965 file photo. The trip presented protocol problems. President Johnson wanted to see him, but the pontiff was a chief of a state not officially recognized by the U.S. The solution: Johnson flew to New York for dinner at the apartment of his friend Arthur Goldberg, the U.S. ambassador to the United Nations, and the pontiff was welcomed to Johnson's suite at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel the next day.

President Richard Nixon talks with Pope Paul VI as they meet in the Vatican, in this Sept. 28, 1970.

President Gerald Ford with Pope Paul VI in the Vatican Library Vatican City. June 3 1975.

President Jimmy Carter became the first president to welcome a pope to the White House. The two agreed not to speak as diplomats, but as Christian brothers. 1979

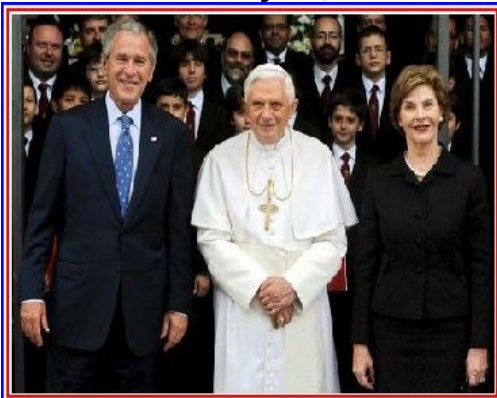

Ronald Reagan confers with Pope John Paul II 1982. President Reagan re-established diplomatic relations with the Vatican in 1984.

George H.W. Bush, stands with Pope John Paul II in the papal library at the Vatican. May 27, 1989

Hillary and President Bill Clinton greet the Pope at the Sacred Heart Cathedral in Newark New Jersey. October 4, 1995.

President George Bush and Laura Bush. All in the Family.

House Speaker Nancy Pelosi Ca. greets Pope Benedict XVI, as President Bush and Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice look on.

Al Smith dinner in October of 2008.
Notice the Separation of Church and State.
Cardinal Egan separating the two.
This is called Separating Church and State.

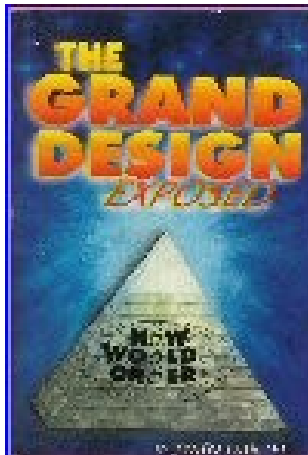

VATICAN CITY, VATICAN – JULY 10:
US President Barack Obama (L) meets with Pope Benedict XVI in his library at the Vatican on July 10, 2009

Psst I thought we were going to get "Change"?

And everyone wonders what's going on this country!
Now ask yourself?

Who Rules?

To order a book send $20.00 includes postage
Money Order No Checks

American Sentry Books

P.O. Box 14

Crawley, West Virginia 24931

Phone: (304) 392-6155

www.granddesignexposed.com